Application Deadline: March 19, 2025

Description

The Stone Center for Research on Wealth Inequality, LSE International Inequalities Institute, and the Institute for Applied Economic Research (IPEA) invite submissions of complete papers or extended abstracts for consideration to be included in a conference on inequality and mobility. We aim to bring together scholars working across disciplines on theoretical, econometric, and empirical papers to engage with each other through presentations and round-table discussions.

We encourage submissions from early career faculty and advanced PhD Students.

Logistics

There is no registration fee for the program. Lodging will be provided. Breakfast and lunch will be provided daily during the program on-site. Evening meals and dining outside of the program are self-pay. Travel and/or alternative lodging options are self-pay.
